

1. Candidiasis affects only mucous membranes of the body.

- a. Not given
- b. True
- c. False

2. Candidiasis affects only mucous membranes of the body.

- a. True
- b. Not given
- c. False

3. Candidiasis can indicate a problem with the immune system

- a. True
- b. Not given
- c. False

4. Candidiasis can indicate a problem with the immune system

- a. False
- b. True
- c. Not given

5. CandidiasisMucocutaneous infection results in oropharyngeal (thrush) or vaginal or cervical candidiasis.

6. Choose the correct statement.

- a. Candidiasis itself is not dangerous
- b. Candidiasis occurs only in neonates
- c. Candidiasis – is always the symptom of more serious illness
- d. In some cases, candidiasis can lead to death

7. Choose the correct statement.

- a. Candidiasis occurs only in neonates
- b. Candidiasis itself is not dangerous
- c. In some cases, candidiasis can lead to death
- d. Candidiasis – is always the symptom of more serious illness

8. How can a definitive diagnosis of invasive candidiasis be made?

- a. By performing endoscopy
- b. Microscopically
- c. Clinically
- d. By finding Candida in the tissue that is normally sterile

9. How can a definitive diagnosis of invasive candidiasis be made?

- a. Clinically
- b. By performing endoscopy
- c. By finding Candida in the tissue that is normally sterile
- d. Microscopically

10. Oral candidiasis is always a symptom of HIV infection.

- a. False
- b. Not given
- c. True

11. Oral candidiasis is always a symptom of HIV infection.

- a. False
- b. True
- c. Not given

12. The patients in the ICU have a high possibility of developing candidiasis.

- a. Not given
- b. False
- c. True

13. The patients in the ICU have a high possibility of developing candidiasis.

- a. True
- b. Not given
- c. False

14. What factors increase the risk of getting candidiasis?

- a. Prematurity, neutropenia, or treatment with corticosteroids

- b. Cytotoxic chemotherapy and asthma
- c. Allergy and neutropenia
- d. Treatment with corticosteroids and NSAIDs

15. What factors increase the risk of getting candidiasis?

- a. Treatment with corticosteroids and NSAIDs
- b. Cytotoxic chemotherapy and asthma
- c. Allergy and neutropenia
- d. Prematurity, neutropenia, or treatment with corticosteroids

16. What patients have a higher risk of getting infected with candidiasis?

- a. Patients who underwent surgery
 - b. Patients who stay in the hospital
 - c. Patients who are taking any drugs
 - d. Patients who had contact with the infected person
17. What patients have a higher risk of getting infected with candidiasis?
- a. Patients who had contact with the infected person
 - b. Patients who stay in the hospital
 - c. Patients who are taking any drugs
 - d. Patients who underwent surgery